

Coaches Corner

Senior Monologue MAGA 2017

Written by Stephanie Mosher

Based on 1 Timothy 4:6-16

(A coach is giving his team a pep-talk for the final game. The coach should be passionate and confident)

This is what I am talking about folks. This is it! You've made it big time. Today is the day that we've been working towards. We've made it to the finals.

(Gets a little more serious) But team, I have just a few, last minute instructions before you go out there and crush it!

I believe in you because you've been raised on the Message of the faith and have followed sound teaching.

This is your time. This is what I am talking about folks

But you can just go out there and let your team do all the work. You have to pass on guidance to the followers of Jesus. When you do this you'll be a good servant of Jesus.

(Gets more serious again) Team, huddle closer.

A word of caution. Stay clear of silly stories that get dressed up as religion. We've made it this far, we cannot be distracted now!

And team, I can't stress this enough.

Exercise daily in God—no spiritual flabbiness, please!

Workouts in the gymnasium are useful, but a disciplined life in God is far more so, making you fit both today and forever.

Just because you're young doesn't mean that you can't win this.

I believe in you.

Folks, get out there and teach believers with your life: by word, by demeanor, by love, by faith, by integrity.

Develop these things.

Immerse yourself in them.

The people will all see you mature right before their eyes!

Keep a firm grasp on both your character and your teaching. Don't be diverted.

Just keep at it.

Both you and those who hear you will experience salvation.

And that's it folks.

The ultimate goal.

The final prize.

Salvation.

Ready? Huddle in. 1...2...3... Break!
